As events and classes slow down at the C.S.P.S. Hall during the summer, it is a good time to catch up on small projects that can easily get put aside. Cleaning the kitchen, touch up painting, and trimming trees is on the work list, as well as other maintenance. The plan is to get ready for upcoming fall events, which will include special celebrations and many guests.

At the C.S.P.S. Hall on Saturday, August 11, 11 a.m., Sokol Minnesota member Mark Dillon will present Rooted in Time: An Architect for All Seasons. The presentation is in honor of the 150th birthday of Dušan Jurkovič. Jurkovič, a popular architect, who had a strong influence on the design of public and residential buildings in Slovakia, Bohemia, and Poland in the early 20th century. He also designed thirty-five cemeteries in Poland after World War I. Jurkovič combined the modern architectural designs that he studied in Vienna with Rusyn folk art designs; he is much admired for his designs. A reception will follow the presentation.

The second weekend of August is a busy time for ethnic celebrations in our area. For more information, take a look at <czechoslovakcentury.org/events/>.

Saturday, August 11, Lonsdale Community Days begins with a pancake breakfast and tours at the Old School House. The Grand Parade begins at 1 p.m., with beanbag and dodgeball tournaments later in the afternoon.

Sunday, August 12, Czech Heritage Festival in Bechyní, Minnesota, begins with a polka mass at Saint Mary's Church. Ethnic foods will be for sale, and musical groups include Mollie B., The Sleepy Eye Area Concertina Band, and the Jim Busta Band.

Also on Sunday, August 12, the 88th Annual Sokol Camp Booya and Picnic is from noon to 5 p.m. on Cross Lake, near Pine City, Minnesota. The event is sponsored by the Minnesota Sokol Camp Association, which held its first picnic at the camp in 1930. The picnic is a major fundraiser for the association; it finances improvements at the camp. The ethnic menu includes booya, cabbage rolls, meatloaf sandwiches, jitnica, and koláče, as well as hot dogs and brats. Booya and cabbage rolls can be pre-ordered. Bingo, a cash prize raffle, children's games, and an exciting water balloon toss all make for a lively afternoon. To make sure that you can try the booya, arrive early because it often sells out by mid-afternoon.

If you like to bake koláče, please join other Sokol bakers on either Thursday or Friday, September 6 or 7. Baking starts at 9 a.m. at the C.S.P.S. Hall. Dozens of koláče will be baked to prepare for our annual Czech and Slovak Festival on Sunday, September 16. Bring something to share for a simple potluck lunch and stay as long as you can at this fun volunteer activity. Please continue to support Sokol Minnesota with your attendance at events, volunteering, and financial contributions. Thank you! Nazdar!

Invitation from Bořek Lizec, Consul General of the Czech Republic in Chicago

Dear Friends,

2018 marks the most important anniversary in modern Czech history. On October 28, 1918, Czechs regained independence after 300 years. Important chapters of the remarkable story of the creation of Czechoslovakia were written one hundred years ago in Chicago and other parts of the American Midwest. The Czech and Slovak state would not have come into existence were it not for Charles Crane, many other Czech-Americans, plus friends from the traditional center of Czech immigration to the United States since the 1850s. Their help to Tomáš Garrigue Masaryk and Edvard Beneš, the first two Czechoslovak presidents and also University of Chicago professors, was of key importance. On the occasion of the centennial of the founding of Czechoslovakia and the 25th anniversary of the creation of the Czech Republic, the highest representatives of our country will travel to Chicago to honor Americans and Czech-Americans who contributed to the birth of the modern Czech statehood.

I have had the great honor to represent the Czech Republic in the Midwest for over seven years. To serve as Consul General on the occasion of the centennial is yet another special privilege. During my tenure, I have discovered many stories of remarkable Czech-American friendship that should be told. That is why I decided to write one more issue of the special historic newspaper Czechs & Chicago that is available free of charge. I would like to offer you a book in the near future. I wish to thank all Czech-Americans, for what they have done for my country and for me personally over the recent years. In many cases, your ancestors came more than 150 years ago. I have never stopped being amazed by how much the Czech heritage has remained in your hearts. We can always rely on you, as well as on many other friends here, in enhancing the Czech-American relations, in making sure that our special bond does not remain just a historic curiosity.

I am extremely grateful to our main sponsor CZ-USA, other sponsors, partners, and countless supporters who have helped to prepare truly special centennial programs. We have all agreed: Where better to celebrate than in Chicago! I hope you will find the programs interesting. I invite you to join us for the main Czech Centennial Weekend at the end of September (and/or for events at the beginning of November, more info about those in September Slovo):

Masonry repairs are needed to these bricks on the north wall.

Grant and Fundraising Updates
By Joyce Tesarek
Built in 1883, our historic C.S.P.S. Hall is still looking good thanks to the continuing care and support of so many of you. To help fund our current projects, including the shed replacement, and roof and masonry repairs, we were awarded a Saint Paul STAR grant for $85,979 from their Historical and Cultural Heritage Grants Program. This is a matching grant, and to access these funds, we need to raise our own $85,979.

We have received many donations and income from fundraisers, including $3,492 from the Czech & Slovak School Twin Cities’ Band Blast and $119 from their art sale. We also received grants of $500 from the West 7th Business Association and $2,515 from the Consulate General of the Czech Republic. Amazingly, in just one year, we have raised $36,604. Only $49,375 to go!

These have all been great support for our C.S.P.S. Hall. If you would like to donate, go to our website at <www.sokolmn.org> or send a check, using the form on this donation page. Thanks!

C.S.P.S. Legacy Fund
In order to complete repairs to our roof and brickwork, we need your help! All donations are 100% tax deductible and will help match the $85,979 City of Saint Paul STAR grant.

Let’s get the Hall in shape to commemorate 2018: our 131st anniversary and the centenary of the birth of Czechoslovakia.

Highlights from the June Board of Directors Meeting
By Denise Stibal, Recording Secretary
The Sokol Minnesota Board of Directors held its monthly meeting on June 21 at 7 p.m.
We discussed creating special cards in July to publicize two fall events: 28th Czech and Slovak Festival and Slavnost. Slavnost tickets will be available for $25/person advance purchase. The Fall 2018 Events Postcard will be included in the Slovo September issue, with an additional 1,000 mailed to Sokol neighbors and friends.
Norm Petrik introduced member applications for Valiant Norman and Michelle Vlasak. Tom Aubrecht reported our current membership is 278.
We purchased wedding decorations from a rental party, which will be used for upcoming weddings at the C.S.P.S. Hall. Dennis Novak reported on the rental of the puppets (Jitka and Jarda); he agreed to be the phone contact for future rentals. Several cards have been sent by the Sunshine Committee, led by Arlene Hamernik.
A party was held for the 2017-2018 gymnastics participant.
We are still working on our window replacement project, as the City of Saint Paul waived the historical preservation requirement.
A Biz Recycling Grant was submitted by Glynis Grostephan to improve and enhance our recycling efforts. The potential grant would provide approximately $10,000 to fund the purchase of tableware and a new dishwasher.
Joyce Tesarek reported that we received a grant from the government of the Czech Republic for 92,000 Kč (approximately $4,200); these funds are for office equipment and AV equipment, plus a projector and sound equipment.

Salute the Czechoslovak Centennial!

Linden trees have a special place in Central Europe’s history, and a new effort to recognize their cultural value has taken root in the Czech Republic and Slovakia.

In Brno, the Trees of Liberty project had, as of July 13, mapped 1,917 linden trees planted following the creation of Czechoslovakia in October 1918 and subsequent anniversary years. The group is looking to map more historic lindens, as well as new plantings, from the United States. (See <www.stromysvobody.cz> for the current map).

“Slovak-American and Czech-American participation is welcome,” says Miroslava Floriánová, planting coordinator for the sponsoring Nadace Partnerství in Brno.

“We’re happy to cooperate on the promotion of your plantings, as well as recognize historic Minnesota trees.”

Trees of Liberty tells the story behind each century-old linden tree’s original planting, as well as recognize new trees as communities memorialize the positive aspects of the redrawing of Central Europe 25 and 100 years ago.

A global mass tree planting is planned for October 20 through October 28, with 325 new lindens pledged so far, according to the Trees of Liberty website.

Nadace Partnerství is looking to help plant 2,018 trees in the Czech Republic and sponsor tree care, in part through crowd-funding.

In Slovak, Czech, and Polish cultures, historic lindens, with heart-shaped leaves, massive symmetrical trunks, and heights that typically reach 60 to 80 feet, are thought to have medicinal and spiritual qualities that date back to early Slavic times. All three cultures cultivate honey that bees produce from Linden flowers’ pollen, as well as tea from the flowers.

“The heart-shaped emblem masterfully unites the humanity, geography, and heritage of the region” write Zuzana Palovic and Gabriela Bereghazyova in Slovakia: The Legend of the Linden, published early this year in Bratislava.

“The foliage of the linden tree, Lípa to the Slavs, is its most opulent feature, while its soft and malleable wood makes the linden perfect for carving. From tribal relics, Viking shields, and monumental Byzantine icons to modern violins and guitars, linden wood has accompanied our history and civilization.”

In Eden Prairie, Terry Picha, a fourth generation Czech-American and owner of the Picha Farms nursery, says he enjoyed seeing the majestic centuries-old European lindens while visiting in Poland. Picha is planning to add two new lindens this summer near a century-old linden on the cemetery grounds of what was founded as the Bohemian Evangelical Reformed Church of Deephaven in 1877. The area is now the Minnetonka-Hopkins border.

In Oronoco, near Rochester, stands the oldest state-documented linden tree known as the Moose Tree because it has three branches shaped like moose heads. At about 165 years old, it was a sapling when the first Bohemians moved to the region in the years following the 1848 Prague Uprising. The tree is now more than 90 feet tall with an 18-foot circumference.

Linden trees also go by the name of basswood and lime trees, named for the shape of their seeds, which have “propeller” wings like silver maple trees. American linden flowers are considered a good source of flavonoids, which are antioxidants, while linden leaves and oil are used to make cosmetics. (Source: <livestrong.com>)

Across the United States and in Minnesota, the name linden has also been adopted as a place name, including Linden Hill (a city-owned historic site and conference center) in Little Falls; Linden Hills, the affluent neighborhood in Minneapolis; and the town of Linden in Brown County.

Lindens are also culturally significant in Slovenia. On a historic parkway from Ljubljana to Trieste, some 290 lindens planted around 1810 survive. They were planted to mark the wedding of Napoleon Bonaparte to Austrian Princess Marie Louise. When Slovenia gained its independence for the first time in 1991, the country’s national leaders met at the site of a more than 700-year-old linden known as The Najevnik. Each summer since then elected officials meet there.
Even after 86 years, the Saint Paul Festival of Nations continues to offer an amazing and impressive array of traditional dance, food, and culture to the thousands of guests who visit the RiverCentre in downtown Saint Paul for the four-day celebration, this year May 3-6. Sokol Minnesota volunteers have represented the Czechs and Slovaks since the festival began, joining other ethnic groups to introduce visitors to colorful folk dress, ethnic food, music, and dance, shopping and exhibits from around the world. Each year on Thursday and Friday mornings, thousands of kids are bused in from schools around the tri-state area. Friday evening through Sunday, the event is open to all. Besides offering great food in our cafè, this year Czechs and Slovaks again had a cultural display in the exhibit area; and our youth, teen, and adult dancers performed. Volunteers helped with food preparation, designing the cultural display, the set-up, take-down and manning the booths, and offered wonderful dance performances. Thanks to all this year’s volunteers!

Our cafè offered a menu of our much-in-demand Slovak dumplings, bacon, and cabbage hotdish (halušky), hot dogs, pork burgers, Czech sausage (jitrnice), fried cheese, Czech open-faced sandwiches with liver sausage, radish, or egg salad; for dessert, we had cream rolls plus cream cheese, apricot, raspberry, poppy seed, and prune koláče. Markéta Resong baked dozens of jam-filled Linzer cookies that delighted our shoppers. Not only did we share Czech and Slovak cultures but we had fun as volunteers working together. Sokol made almost $5,000.

This year’s Sokol Minnesota’s cultural exhibit presented a display of Currency in Czech and Slovak Lands. In the center was a large photo of an historic Bohemian coin tolar from which the modern word dollar derived. Next to it were large prints of current banknotes with a short bio of the people represented on each one of them. And on the booth floor the main props was an oversized cardboard coin. Students were encouraged to design their own coins and pin their creations on the giant circle. The designs were very inventive and the messages quite funny and touching.

Antonín Dvořák’s Rusalka could not say one single word to her prince during their wedding ceremony, not in any language. But our Czech & Slovak School Twin Cities’ students who continued taking classes in Czech or Slovak would be able to converse with Rusalka’s relatives from The East China Sea, Bay of Biscay, or The Caribbean Sea, for many of them speak another language in addition to English. All of them also possess the extra magic that helps them communicate with their grandparents, relatives, and friends who live in the Czech Republic or Slovakia. Our students are lucky to understand the language, the present culture, and the history of their ancestors. They learn grammar and vocabulary; experience music, crafts, and home-made cuisine; learn traditional dances with Louise Wessinger; and travel to Europe. How fortunate they are to have the C.S.P.S. Hall, as well as parents who teach them, cook ethnic foods, and expose them to summers abroad. Sounds like a dream! Students celebrated together with their parents and teachers on the last Saturday in April by receiving their school certificates. No, they are not done yet, but they hope to reach The Seal of Biliteracy for their high school diploma to make it a dream come true.

Domácí Czech Folk Dancers and the Czech Heritage Junior Royalty

The Domácí Czech Folk Dancers and the Czech Heritage Junior Royalty of southern Minnesota, directed by Czech and Slovak Sokol Minnesota members Arnie and Deb Ziskovsky, made many appearances this spring as part of their mission to promote both their heritage and traditional Czech folk dancing.

The dancers took a day away from their regular school calendar in May to visit four elementary schools in three neighboring towns: New Prague, Montgomery, and LeCenter. While at the all-school assemblies, totaling approximately 1,400 students, the dancers provided a brief history of the 1918-2018 Czech-Slovak Century, taught some language phrases, as well as performed. They ended their day at the Cinco de Mayo Celebration in LeCenter. The Junior Royalty were unable to attend as they were attending the Festival of Nations in Saint Paul, working their annual shift at the Czech-Slovak Cultural Booth.

In June, both groups attended three libraries for Summer Reading Programs celebrating “Libraries Rock!” The Domácí Dancers performed at each, offering an opportunity for other children to learn a couple dances afterwards. The dancers also performed at a local preschool and a senior organization’s monthly social meeting.

The group not only performs locally, but travels across state lines. The dancers were the featured entertainers at the 35th Annual Czech-Slovak Festival in Phillips, Wisconsin, in June. They will be a visiting group at the Czech and Kolache Festival in Kewaunee, Wisconsin in August.
21st Annual Children’s Czech and Slovak Cultural Day Camp 2018

By Louise Wessinger and Judy Aubrecht, Co-Directors

From June 18 to June 22, the C.S.P.S. (Sokol) Hall was turned over to a fun learning center for the next generation. Twenty-three campers, ages 7 to 14 years old, spent the week absorbing “100 Years of Czech and Slovak History and Culture 1918-2018.” Each day campers focused on a period of that history as they rotated learning groups of cooking, crafts, gymnastics, and language in the mornings. Afternoons were spent with guest speakers each day, as well as, practicing the all-camp play, Marushka and the Month Brothers, a Slovak fairy tale, directed by leader Glynis Grostephan. Campers also had a choice group activity each day, including Crafts with Doreen, Cooking with Anne, and Lego Castle building with Lorraine and Elisa.

Monday: Focus on the Founding of Czechoslovakia. Campers began the day with a large map of what Czechoslovakia was in 1918. They colored the heraldic shields of the five main areas of the country as it was founded. In craft class, they made Czechoslovak Legion soldier puppets. It was the Legion which helped establish an army for the new nation even before it became a country. Campers cooked bublakina, a traditional coffee cake, using blueberries and rhubarb. Our special guest was Karen Varian who told the story of a man who lived in five countries and never moved from the house in which he was born! We also read about Tomáš Garrigue Masaryk, the first President of Czechoslovakia.

Tuesday: Focus on the First Republic. The 20 years from 1918-1938 were years of independence, democracy, and growth. Pride in culture was present in many ways, especially in the Sokol Organization, which had been established in 1862. Joan Sedlacek came in her dress uniform to tell about Bedřich Smetana, the famous Czech composer of Má Vlast (My Homeland). Blanka explained the movement called Vltava (The Moldau), which is about the Vltava River which runs north through Bohemia and Prague before joining the Elbe. It passes rapids, hunting groups, a wedding, and great castles on the way. She taught campers how to listen for these sections in the piece. During closing snack, we read Ice Cream Summer by Czech-American author Peter Sís.

Thursday: Focus on the Communist Era, 1948-1989. We learned about Slovak- American artist, Andy Warhol, a famous ‘60s-’70s pop artist. His artwork used common subjects like commercial ads and famous people of the time. The inspiration to make tomato soup from scratch during our cooking class came from Warhol’s famous Tomato Soup Can Label, painted with synthetic polymer paint of canvas. Campers learned that during the communist era in Czechoslovakia, strict limitation prevented most artists from exhibiting their work. In 1984, the artist Joska Skalník took a risk by sending out some 300 wooden framed boxes of 15 x 15 x 5 cm for other dissident artists to create their free-themed work within this small space. The underground project was successful; 244 of the boxes were returned to Joska, however an exhibition was then impossible as the police were interested in the Minisalon; the collection went into hiding. After the fall of communism, Skalník had his exhibit displayed in galleries from Europe to the United States. The project was titled Minisalon, Czech Exhibit Celebrates Freedom in a Limited and Limiting World. Our campers were given their own Minisalon boxes to create their own images reflecting the original theme of “a limited and limiting world, past or present.” (Thank you, Dave Stepan, for making the Minisalon box frames!). You can view these very touching pieces of art, as seen through the children's eyes, on display at Sokol's Czech and Slovak Festival on September 16.

We read parts of Peter Sís’ book The Wall: Growing Up Behind the Iron Curtain. With many wonderful illustrations, the book shows what it was like to grow up under communism. We had a treasure hunt called “Where’s Warhol?” In the treasure box was a mini Andy Warhol and Tootsie Pops (for pop art!).

Friday: We celebrated the Fall of Communism and the Velvet Divorce. We talked about the peaceful division of Czechoslovakia into Czech Republic and Slovakia; campers colored separate flags of each country. They made two spreads for their zelníky (sauerkraut) crackers. We had a big kickball game and also played Sokol Bingo with Czech words read by our Czech teacher Kate. Then it was time to show off for the families with our closing program, which opened with our Sokol “cal” or drill to Grand Old Flag. We danced and sang some of our Czech and Slovak favorites, passed out certificates to our leaders and campers. Everyone enjoyed watching the all-camp play, Marushka and the Month Brothers. At last, it was time to taste the treats the campers had prepared during the week. Delicious!

Many thanks to our great volunteer team: Junior Leaders, who not only led groups but also performed many tasks to make camp run smoothly: Anna, Chloe, Elisa, and Kate. Sokol gymnastic instructors, Isabelle and Zoe. Doreen McKenney planned and prepared all of the craft projects and menus for the cooking classes. Craft assistants: Jean Draheim and Glynis Grostephan. Kitchen and culinary leader: Anne Jans with help from Lida Strot and Lorraine Olson, plus Dawn Bulera and Kari Swartz as part-time helpers. Photographer: Martina Gurgel, who also contributed to the discussion of historical topics. Pianist: Don Haselbauer who had all of us dancing and singing to his enthusiastic playing. Special thanks to Sokol member Ken Janda for his beautiful, large wooden puzzle with pieces for each region of the Czech Republic and Slovakia. Many of the children received a special award for completing this puzzle.

As we ended our 21st Annual Children’s Czech and Slovak Cultural Day Camp, we looked back at all the years and all the campers of the past with happy memories. Now we look forward to the 22nd annual camp, June 17 to 21, 2019. Put it on your calendar! Na shledanou!
1. Flag ceremony was held each morning.
2. Campers loved to dance. Camper dad Alan Olson joined the dancers one morning; he once belonged to Taneční Mládež.
3. Joan Sedlacek told about Sokol history and the upcoming slet in Prague to which she flew the very next day.
4. Sokol Gymnastic Instructors, Zoe and Charlotte, stressed how important it is to keep all the core muscles tight during gymnastic elements. They demonstrated lifting both feet and lifting the core/body with them.
5. Czech Language Instructor Kate had enthusiastic students.
6. Minisalon artworks (patterned after an ‘80s Czech collection celebrating “freedom in a limited and limiting world”) included Stuck in Glue: “During the communist times all the people were stuck in the country like glue.”
7. Crafts: this young camper showed off the head of his Legionnaire puppet. Earlier in the week he decorated his apron with a traditional Czech floral pattern.
8. Campers whisked egg white to make bublanina (bubble cake) with Cooking/Baking Instructor Anne Jans (center).
9. After campers learned about 1918 and the creation of Czechoslovakia, this camper proudly displayed her coloring page of T. G. Masaryk, first Czech President.
10. Camp Co-Director Judy Aubrech offered Junior Leaders Elisa, Chloe, and Anna the customary salt/bread greeting that visitors receive upon entering a traditional Czech home.
11. Camp Co-Director Louise Wessinger told about famous Czech and Slovak artists, displaying here a copy of Andy Warhol’s Marilyn Monroe.
12. On Friday, campers performed a prostná (calisthenics drill) for their parents. Many years ago our own Georgiana Dolejsi (1918-2013) wrote this cal to You’re a Grand Old Flag.
13. After the Friday parents’ program, all the leaders, junior leaders, and campers (some still in theatre costumes) proudly posed. It was a great week!

George Chlebecek, 60-year active member of Sokol Minnesota, passed away June 11, 2018, at the age of 82. He grew up and lived in Minneapolis, where his interest in gymnastics started. Not only was George a Sokol gymnast through high school, he was also the recipient of a Gold Sokol Medal. Sokol was an integral part of his life. George was a star volunteer.

Jason Brozovich, our current Sokol Men’s Physical Director, commented how he enjoyed the many fond memories George shared about his younger days as a gymnast, and how proud he was of his brother, Jim, also a successful gymnast. The Sokol instructor for both George and Jim was their father, James, Sr.

George and his brother Jim owned cabins on the same lake where they enjoyed working together, fishing, and entertaining family and friends. George was also an avid hunter.

A graduate of the University of Minnesota, he taught music in Red Wing for four years before teaching in Saint Louis Park where he taught until his retirement. At this position, he started a string instrument orchestra.

He will be deeply missed by his brother Jim (Mary Jo); nephew Jim (Erin); niece Jodi (Brian Mondor); significant other, Janice Jacobson. Celebration of life was on June 26 at C.S.P.S. Hall. Memorials are preferred to Sokol Minnesota.

Terry Pulkrabek, age 77, of New Hope, Minnesota, formerly of Glencoe, Minnesota, passed away at the Veterans Administration Medical Center in Minneapolis on Saturday, July 7, 2018. A private burial will take place at Koniska Cemetery, across from the farm where he lived as a child, in McLeod County, Minnesota. A celebration of life will be Saturday, August 18, 2018, at the Pla-Mor Ballroom in Glencoe from noon until 4:00 p.m. with a program at 1:00 p.m.

Terry and his longtime companion Betty Erlandson were great Sokol volunteers, especially with the students at Festival of Nations. Together they especially enjoyed motorcycles, dancing, and travel.
Ironically, the banality-praising Warhol is a fascinating and extremely famous artist, even regarded as one of the most famous American artists. No matter how much you do or don’t admire Warhol’s art and films, he deserves credit as an outstanding marketer who carefully managed his image and packaged his art. Who is not familiar with his Campbell soup can silk screens? The massive Andy Warhol Museum in Pittsburgh, full of his artworks and archives, is the largest museum in the United States dedicated to a single artist. He worked in a variety of media, including painting, silk screen, photography, film, and sculpture. Among his best-known films are Sleep (1963, which shows a poet friend sleeping for six hours), Vinyl (1965, an adaptation of the book A Clockwork Orange), and Chelsea Girls (1966, two films projected simultaneously with two different stories shown in tandem.)

For the larger picture of Warhol’s art, influences, and standing, I recommend two books that make a nice addition to this first-person account. They are Andy Warhol by Wayne Koestenbaum and Pop: The Genius of Andy Warhol by Tony Scherman.

Parade Stars: Jitka and Jarda

For the International Festival of Burnsville at the Ames Center on July 21, Blanka Brichta organized Czech/Slovak participation. Jitka and Jarda with their newly freshened faces and hands, plus garment touch-ups, made their summer debut in Burnsville. Next appearance was a week later at Kolacky Days, Montgomery, July 29. The pair returns home to C.S.P.S. Sokol Hall for the Czech-Slovak Festival on Sunday, September 16. Come see them yourself!!

Volunteers at the International Festival of Burnsville: Julie Bifano, Blanka Brichta, Dennis Cahill, Mary Cahill, Michaela Giancarlo Kotek and daughter, Glynis Grostephan, David Hartman, Lenka Hester and son, Dita Martinez, Doreen McKenney, Leesa Nordstrom, Evelina Ravina, Joan Sedlacek, Scott Stansey.

Our Sokol puppets Jitka and Jarda have been in many parades and on display in many places over the years. Traveling takes it toll on these large, tall folks. They have suffered more than a few cuts and scrapes. After a bit of renewal time at the Sokol “Spa” in July, they are now ready to meet their fans again.

Jitka and Jarda at the “Spa” (classroom at Sokol Hall) for their rejuvenation treatments before starting the 2018 parade circuit.

With Jitka and Jarda at the Burnsville parade: Michaela Giancarlo Kotek, Evelina Ravina, Blanka Brichta, Ditta Martinez.

Burnsville Mayor Elizabeth B. Kautz with Ride of the Kings horse and king, created by Doreen McKenney for the Czech & Slovak Cultural Booth, 2017 Festival of Nations, Saint Paul.
