Prezidentův komentář/President's Notes by Dave Stepan

Did someone say fire!? For those of you who may not be aware, on May 1 our Czech and Slovak Sokol Minnesota's C.S.P.S Hall tenant, the Pajarito restaurant, had a fire in the exhaust stack of one of their grills. The fire was contained to the inside of the vent, but the heat emitted was enough to initiate our fire suppression sprinkler system. Many thanks to the Saint Paul fire department who responded quickly and put out the fire.

Lessons I learned from the fire:

- There is a difference between a wet and dry fire suppression system.
- It pays to invest in the future. Sokol Minnesota invested years ago in our wet fire suppression system. Investments pay off, whether it is your home, your children, your physical or mental health.
- As a landlord we need to be vigilant to ensure our tenant maintains the side of the first floor they are renting.
- We need to do everything we can to make sure that it does not occur again.

I might be selfish to say it, but I could think of nothing worse for my legacy than if our Hall were to have burnt down under my watch. "Infamous" is not what I want my name associated with!

Thank you to the forward thinkers in this organization who planned years ago to install the fire suppression system and, more importantly, to you the donors who supported this project. You can be certain you are part of an organization which not only owns a building with a working fire suppression/sprinkler system but is interested in preserving it for the future. We escaped this potential catastrophic disaster with only minor issues. It could have been much, much worse.

We are investing in our future:

The 23rd Sokol Minnesota Children's Cultural Day Camp will be held this year. Under the tutelage of co-directors Louise Wessinger and our late president Judy Aubrecht, and long-time leader and new co-director Doreen McKenney, the camp has taught Czech and Slovak traditions to hundreds of children.

We are again honoring, with Youth Leadership Awards, our junior or senior high school age children who participate in Sokol Minnesota youth activities and regularly volunteer at Sokol Minnesota events. Applications are due July 1. For more information, see the article in this issue. The awards include a $300 grant. If you have the means to help endow future awards, please contact finance@sokolmn.org.

Our new Youth Group grades 6-12 will be starting up this fall. See the article in this issue.

We are always investing in our building by fixing what needs to be fixed and planning improvements.

We provide opportunities to improve your physical and mental health through activities such as Kolo Sokol (our bicycle group, www.sokolmn.org/bike), the members and volunteers picnic on June 6, the 23rd Children's Czech and Slovak Cultural Day Camp June 14-18, the 90th Sokol Camp Booya Picnic on August 15, our 32nd Czech and Slovak Festival on September 26, craft and bake sales, dinners (at the Hall when we can), and events such as dances (although none are scheduled this year so far).

If any of you are looking to get active with our leadership, please let me know (president@sokolmn.org). As one example, we have been working without a backup to our website coordinator, Richard Sargent, and could use some assistance.

Nazdar!

Congratulations to High School Graduates Isabelle Callanan and Ella Pratt!

By Courtney Benson

Isabelle Callanan

Athlete turned gymnast. Gymnast turned coach. Coach turned leader.

I personally have known Isabelle since the first day she stepped foot into our Sokol Minnesota C.S.P.S. Hall approximately seven years ago. I knew she was unique from the start. She will be first to tell you she was looking for a gymnastics program after performing cartwheels on the basketball court, but I think she found so much more than that, and Sokol Minnesota did the same. Within herself, she found a leader.

Isabelle has been a gymnast competing on behalf of Sokol Minnesota for all seven years. Her natural talent is evident. She has “flawless” execution and she is often referred to as the “beam queen.” Her teammates describe her one-of-a-kind personality as what will be missed most: “I will miss all the endless jokes during practice... her ability to joke around in every situation. Isabelle never loses energy.”

Isabelle has also been a coach for five years, primarily leading our 4-6 age group. She is a role model to many and her passion for gymnastics is infectious: “She makes gymnastics really fun. The happiness that follows her is truly special.”

Isabelle will graduate from Visitation School. She plans to attend Colby College in Maine to study pre-medicine. Much like her past at Sokol Minnesota, Isabelle will undoubtedly succeed in her future; her dedication and drive will take her the distance.

Ella Pratt

To a true team player, to say you will be missed is an understatement.

Ella is someone who sets the standard on how to treat others; she is someone whom I adore. She is outspoken and willing to voice her opinion, but equally wants to allow others a platform to be heard. If someone is nervous to try a new skill, Ella is the first to offer reassurance. Likewise, if someone masters a skill, Ella is the first to celebrate their success. Her teammates mention her bringing “joy and happiness to practice every day.” Whether “recovering from an injury or facing a hard skill, Ella continues to have a smile on her face.”

Her “caring nature and positive energy” will be missed the most, both as a gymnast as well as a coach, primarily leading our 7-8 age group. She has been a valued leader at Sokol Minnesota for the past six years, contributing well beyond her years. “She lights up the room and creates such a welcoming environment. She is a wonderful leader and a great friend. Her kindness is contagious.”

Ella will graduate from Open World Learning Community (OWL). She plans to attend the University of Wisconsin, Eau Claire, to major in exercise science. Her commitment and curiosity will position her well for all the challenges, and inevitable celebrations, to follow. I look forward to following the exciting things life has in store for her and her future.

To Isabelle and Ella: Take pride in how far you have come; have faith in how far you will go, and, most importantly, enjoy the journey along the way. We will certainly miss you, but constantly support you, and look forward to your visits back home, which hopefully include a stop by the gym to say hi to your fellow community. On behalf of the entire Sokol Minnesota organization, thank you and congratulations!

Dancer Isabella Spiess Graduates

By Louise Wessinger

Isabella (Izzy) Spiess, daughter of Sokol Minnesota member Audrey Spiess and Paul Weig, will graduate from South High School in Minneapolis this spring. She has consistently been an honor roll student while lettering in dance and theatre. One of her favorite memories of school is her 10th grade involvement in History Day. She went to state in the competition, placing Fifth for her performance and winning the Topical Award. While at South she was very active in theatre, with roles in six performances. These included Eurydice, Breaking the Code, Clue, Seussical, High School Musical, and Good and Plenty.

Izzy also has been involved with the Children's Theatre Company in Minneapolis.

She had roles in Carrie and Chicago as well as one of the leads in Spamtown, USA, which only got to run for one weekend in 2020 due to COVID. She received very positive reviews for her performance. She plans to attend the University of Minnesota in the fall, where she will be a theatre major. I always tell Izzy I know you will be on Broadway some day!

An excellent dancer, Izzy has been in the Sokol Minnesota Taneční Mládež and Taneční Teens since she was four years old. Always one of the most enthusiastic dancers, Izzy remembers: "I LOVED the singing when I was little and the way the skirts swirled. My favorite dance is 100% Kalamajka." Her favorite events were always the Christmas program and the Festival of Nations. At her first teen group performances at the Festival of Nations, she remembers dancing on Friday with her hair long, getting a haircut, and returning to dance on Saturday with a short pixie cut. Everyone was shocked! It was pretty funny.

Izzy was always a terrific dancer and she just got better and better. Even though she was one of the best dancers in the group, she was always willing to help other dancers or to dance with someone who needed help. Izzy suggestion to younger dancers was always: "Stick with it. When you are in the teen group the dances will be a fun challenge for you!"

I feel sad to think we have been unable to practice or perform since March 2020, so Izzy has missed her last year and a half of dance. Usually, we would celebrate our seniors at the Festival of Nations dress rehearsal, which we have not been able to hold. Hopefully we will be able to celebrate Izzy and honor her participation in dance sometime this summer. I will miss you, Izzy! Best and brightest future! You have always been a star and I'm sure you will always be one!

Miss Czech Slovak Minnesota Queen 2021-2022 Crowned

Mary Carson, Miss Czech Slovak Minnesota First Princess 2018-19, was crowned Miss Czech Slovak Minnesota Queen 2021-2022, on May 18 by Autumn Gare, Miss Czech Slovak Minnesota Queen 2019-2021.

The Miss Czech Slovak Minnesota Pageant Board of Directors is very excited to have Mary share her Czech Slovak heritage during the upcoming year. Mary will represent Minnesota at the Miss Czech Slovak United States Pageant in Wilbur, Nebraska, August 6-8.

Boys Gymnastics Bouncing Back

By Jason Brozovich

In February 2020, young girl and boy gymnasts were working hard at our Czech and Slovak Sokol Minnesota C.S.P.S. Hall, and some were training for an upcoming competition in April. Fast forward to mid-March of 2020 and so many things had changed. The threat of COVID essentially closed the Hall's doors and put an end to our gymnastics endeavors, including our Western District competition and our end-of-the-year celebration. As we know now, some of these changes were just the tip of the COVID iceberg.

Because we value so highly the health and safety of our Sokol Minnesota gymnasts, members, and families, we continue to adhere to the guidelines set forth by the Centers for Disease Control and Minnesota Department of Health. As the restrictions lessened, we made the decision this past winter to resume some of our programming, specifically our boys' class on Monday evenings. On February 15, 2021, ten gymnasts (all previous participants) returned to the Hall with one family member per household present. We required sign-in at the door, temperature checks, masks, and social distancing as able. The equipment was set up to allow for distancing as well. Despite the changes, everyone worked hard and made some great improvements in a short period of time! Our eleven-week session ended without any COVID cases or required quarantines!

I would like to thank our coaches, Mary Cahill, Matt Schussler, and Zoe Hoiland for their willingness to take on this new challenge, and the parents that trusted us to provide a safe environment. But it was the gymnasts that truly made our program work by adhering to the precautions, adapting to the changes, and coming with a positive attitude each evening. Thank you all! I hope when classes resume in September (for both boys and girls), things will be a little more "normal", but if not, I know we have a system in place and participants will keep things safe while still having fun!

Sokol Minnesota Receives Grant from the Czech Republic Ministry of Foreign Affairs

By Joyce Tesarek

Once again, Sokol Minnesota is a grateful recipient of a generous grant from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Czech Republic to support our programs and facility. This year, Consul General of the Czech Consulate in Chicago, Jaroslav Kanturek, announced that Sokol Minnesota would receive 120,000 Kč ($5,350.45) to be used to make the third-floor mezzanine space more effective as a meeting space and classroom. Shades will be installed on the eleven very large, uncovered windows to block heat and light, and equipment will be purchased to support films and presentations held in the room.

We greatly value our connections with the countries and people of the Czech Republic and Slovak Republic and their history, culture, and traditions.

J. A. Wedum Foundation Grant to Sokol Minnesota

By Joyce Tesarek

Formed in 1959, the J.A. Wedum Foundation is a private family foundation located in Minneapolis, Minnesota. The Foundation fulfills its charitable mission by providing quality housing and impacting communities through charitable giving. Czech and Slovak Sokol Minnesota is pleased to accept a $10,000 grant from the Foundation. This grant will be used to rehabilitate the steam radiator heating system and support Sokol Minnesota programming.

The Foundation owns and operates student housing in Saint Cloud, as well as senior housing in Rochester, Mankato, Saint Paul, and San Antonio, Texas. In December 2020, the Foundation opened its newest development, Lexington Landing. The building is located at the base of the re-routed

Lexington Parkway and West 7th Street in Saint Paul. Lexington Landing provides residents who are 55 and older with various living options to suit a variety of lifestyle choices: independent living, assisted living, and memory care apartments.

We are excited by opportunities to partner with nearby Lexington Landing, to share programs there, and have residents attend our events. Our own special Sokol Minnesota member Libby Imbrone is a resident and welcomed us to her apartment during our May 5 tour. We enjoyed sharing our traditional koláče baked and sent by Míša Kotek for the occasion.

Czech and Slovak Sokol Minnesota Historical Articles: Sokol Slets

We are fortunate to have in this issue articles about the 1938 All-Sokol Slet by Joan Sedlacek and Louise Wessinger. Here is some general background information about the All-Sokol Slets. Sokol, founded in 1862, flourished between the two World Wars. During this time, membership grew to over a million. <www.Czechgallery.com>

Every six years, the All-Sokol Slet brings together international members of Sokol for a grand-scale celebration, the first of which took place in 1882. Thousands of people descend upon Prague for a week of prostnas (calisthenic drills), gymnastics performances, and other sporting and cultural events. For those who live in the country, the Slet presents an opportunity to foster national pride. Some 160,000 people across the Czech Republic count themselves as members of Sokol. But the event is also a chance for people of Czech origin living abroad to reconnect with their roots.

The 1938 ČOS Slet

By Joan Sedlacek

1938 was an anxious year, but also one of great anticipation and excitement for Sokols around the world. Tensions in Europe were growing with the increased activities of the Nazis. Česká obec sokolská (ČOS, the Czech headquarters of Sokol, www.sokol.eu) was preparing for the X All Sokol Slet for Sokol men, women, and children from around the world to gather in Prague. It would be a glorious time, a celebration of 20 years of independence for Czechoslovakia.

Preparations had been going on for years, including planning for housing, feeding, and transporting tens of thousands of people. Huge tasks for the Slet itself included writing the prostnas, choosing music, sending music and instructions to three dozen countries around the world, preparing the athletic venues, including putting značky (markers) on the field, mapping out parades, and arranging entertainment.

The logistics of the Slet are mind boggling. Housing was needed for over 100,000 people. Four three-story buildings were built beside the lineup area at Masaryk Stadium. Each building housed 6,000 people.

How do you get 10,000, 20,000, or more people lined up in the staging area so that when they march, shoulder to shoulder, through the entrance to the field and spread out they are exactly on the one marker in a field of 20,000 markers that is theirs? It is through exquisite pre-planning, self-discipline, and a willingness to obey. After being in more than a few Slets myself, I still think it is magic.

As Sokol gained popularity, it needed larger spaces for the Slets. Most needed was a stadium. Letna Stadium had grown too small, so Sokols around the world contributed money for the new Masaryk Stadium at Strahov. In the six years since the last Slet, work at the stadium included upgrading the underground sound system and building dormitories. Strahov is the highest point in Prague. Centuries earlier it was used as a lookout point for the protection of Prague. In the 11th century, the Saint Augustine Seminary was located there. In the 15th and 16th century it was a battleground for military actions, including the Thirty Years War. In the 17th century, it was a military base and training ground. Stones from the large rock formations were used for building Prague. On this firm and historic foundation, the Sokols met in Masaryk Stadium to show their loyalty to one man's dream.

Before the Slet, the national radio in Czechoslovakia broadcast the music for the different calisthenic numbers at specific times across the country. The Sokols met at their local Sokolovna at the designated time to practice. The entire country benefited from the exercise of practicing. They competed at local and district levels to prove their prowess and perfection before being chosen for the Slet.

The American Sokol Organization selected men's and women's teams to represent the country. Georgiana Smolik (Buzicky Dolejsi), Emily Cikanek, and Hank Jansen of Sokol Saint Paul Gymnastic Society were members of these teams. My Dad, Fred Sedlacek, was a member of the team from Sokol Berwyn in the Chicago area. Other Saint Paul members attending were Albert and Bessie Smolik, Laura Jansen, and Millie Podavar. Minneapolis Sokol members included Rose Saliny and Joe Hosek.

The SS Aquitania, the "Aristocrat of the Sea", was berthed in New York City and Sokols from across the United States traveled by train to begin the great adventure on June 1. Round trip fare, NY-Cherbourg-NY, for Sokol members was $176, non-members paid $205. The train from Cherbourg, France to Prague in 2nd class was $21.29. Third class was Cal Practice on the Aquitania $14.96. The trip across the ocean took five days. Dressed in their gym uniforms, men and women practiced their "prostnas" aboard ship. Imagine what the other passengers thought when they saw the Sokols doing these calisthenic drills. Coming from many units around the country, this was a chance to practice as a group. Pictures were taken of the group in dress uniforms and gym uniforms.

The American Sokols landed in Cherbourg, France and boarded a train for Prague. They did not know when the coming war would start. If anything had happened, they would have been turned away and forced to set sail for home. Crossing Germany, they met with Aryan arrogance. The train had not been supplied with food or beverages. At one stop, some of the men got off to buy food for the group. After the sandwiches had been passed out and the people were going to eat, someone looked in a sandwich and found maggots crawling! When they reached Cheb, Czechoslovakia, they were greeted by welcoming Sokols.

Happy to see the Americans, children in uniform were part of the reception party. As the train rolled through the Czech countryside, they passed a woman standing next to a bicycle. She was the mother of Marie Svanhauser. Marie had come to the United States as a young woman and settled in Saint Paul, where she became an active Sokol member. Her mother rode the bike for a couple of hours to stand by the railroad tracks to watch a train carrying people who knew her daughter. Then she had the long, lonely ride home.

The train pulled into Wilson Station in Prague. The Americans were met with a brass band and a large welcoming crowd. They marched from the station down Vaclavske Namesti (Wenceslas Square) to the hotel. The Slovak contingent from the United States took a later boat because they had some problems with scheduling. The American Sokol group was the only one there to greet them. They had days to wander Prague when they were not at a competition or practice. Some went to visit relatives. The Slet parade went down Václavské náměstí through Prague and across Karlův Most (Charles Bridge). Judging by the shiny streets and umbrellas in photos, they had rain. What a parade it was! 73,840 men and women in dress uniforms, gym uniforms,  kroje, and civil attire marched with 1,000 flags and banners accompanied by 100 bands with 2,953 musicians.

The Slet with the prostnas lasted 10 days. The competitions over a month's time included gymnastics, track and field, water sports, heavy athletic contests, weightlifting, wrestling, hammer throw, fencing, equestrian, and more.

The countries represented were: Albania, Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Bulgaria, Denmark, Egypt, Estonia, Finland, France, Chile, India, Ireland, Italy, Japan, Yugoslavia, Canada, Lithuania, Latvia, Hungary, Germany, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Austria, Romania, Greece, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Turkey, and United States, and Great Britain. Each of these Sokols paid their own expenses. They worked, learned, and sacrificed to be a part of this grand life experience.

A total of 61,680 youth had their own parade and competitions. There were 20,000 boys and girls under 10 years old, 17,700 boys and girls ages 10-14, and 23,980 older boys and girls in the low division, 11,520 boys and 12,480 girls in the high division, and 17,160 junior boys and 16,640 junior girls.

225,000 gymnasts were registered for the various mass calisthenics drills. Some of the days were rainy and cold, but no one minded too much. This was the culmination of six years of work and dreams. Attendance was over 1,000,000 people.

The American Sokol group went to Lány to lay a wreath at the grave of first President and Liberator T.G. Masaryk and visit his summer home, a ceremony I also participated in at the XII Slet in 1994. On the way back to Prague the Americans stopped at Bila Hora (White Mountain). On the spot where Czech freedom was lost in 1620, the representatives of the American Sokol proclaimed that under no circumstances would the American Sokol ever desert the Czechoslovak nation, a pledge we faithfully kept for 51 years. On July 7, President and Mrs. Benes hosted a garden party for the Americans at Hradčany. Flowers were laid at the graves of Sokol founders Miroslav Tyrš and Jindrich Fugner at Olsany Cemetery. Fifty six years later, in 1994, we repeated the ceremony.

When the Slet ended, a group toured Bohemia, Moravia, and Slovakia. One stop was at Barondov, the Hollywood of Czech with its village of false fronts and other sets. Another was a visit to Konopište and the gardens. A luncheon was given them at Sokol Brno. Sokols gathered in front of the National Theater in Bratislavia. They marched in uniform with flags to lay a wreath at the Milan Stefanek monument at Brezová pod Bradlom. He was one of the three principal founders of Czechoslovakia, with Masaryk and Edvard Benes.

They visited Hlboko and Semnica and were greeted by townspeople in  kroje. Next were Sterbske Pleso and Liptovský, Svätý Mikuláš, Tatranska Lomnica, and a cable car ride at Vysoke Tatry, where they stood in snow. They went to the ice caves at Dobsinka, L'Adova, Jaskyna, and toured the Bata shoe factory in Zlin. Then on to Plzen and Domažlice, including the air conditioned Sokolovna there.

Some people went home at the end of the tour. Others visited family. My Dad, Jeri Svarc, and Ed Halik traveled to Vienna, Paris, and parts of France and London.

They boarded the Queen Mary in Southampton for the trip home. Other American Sokols were also on board. The trip home was quieter. No practices on deck. No anticipation of the upcoming Slet. Only satisfaction and life-long memories. Their last day at sea was August 21, 1938. When the Statue of Liberty came into view, they knew they were home, although they still had thousands of miles to travel.

I grew up with the stories of the 1938 Slet. I have Dad's photo album of the trip. The people who were there never forgot one of the great moments of their lives. After Dad died, I met many of his friends and heard their stories, so many that I feel as though I had been there.

In 1994, I participated in the XII Slet. Dad was in the last Slet in free Czechoslovakia and I was in the first post-communism Slet 56 years later. I stood where he stood, waiting to enter Masaryk Stadium. I heard the chimes at the beginning and sang the national anthems. We marched through the passageways and onto the field to add our footsteps to those who went before. So much had happened between the two Slets. A world-changing war. Generations of communism. Heady freedom. Through it all Sokol remained faithful to its ideals and steadfast in its loyalties.

My Parents' Memories of the X Sokol Slet in Prague By Louise Jansen Wessinger

Memories of the 1938 Sokol Slet in Prague provided some of my parents' most cherished stories that were told and retold to my sister Linda (Jansen) Nicoli and myself. Those memories are most probably why Sokol became such a big part of our family life.

My father, Hank Jansen, was a lifelong Sokol. He was brought to the Sokol Saint Paul gym at the age of seven by his stepfather, Charlie Zalesky. Dad loved gymnastics at first sight! He met my mother at a gymnastic meet at the Turner's Hall (Turner's is the German version of Sokol). They were married in 1937.

Dad, who had competed in many gyms meets, made the American Sokol Men's Team for the 1938 Slet in Prague. When he told Mom he was going to Prague; she said so was she! Mom and Dad's "honeymoon" was their trip for the Slet. They sailed aboard the Aquitania. Dad roomed with the men's team and Mom with the older ladies (Mom was 20 at the time, so the other women were not that old). In 1938,

A calisthenic routine at the Masaryk Stadium in 1938 done by 17,000 men. Other routines had up to 30,000 men participating. There were between 150,000-200,000 spectators each day of the Slet. [Photo credit: National Geographic]

American Sokol also had a woman's team. Two women on the team were from Saint Paul: Georgiana Smolik (Buzicky Dolejsi), who held many roles at Sokol Minnesota, including President, and Emily Cikanek.

Mom and Dad spent almost two months traveling in Europe, mostly with the American group. They made many lifelong friends, including Joan's Sedlacek's Dad, Fred Sedlacek, who was from Berwyn, Illinois. Fred met Joan's mother Lorene Ahlf, who like my mother, was a member of the Turners in Saint Paul. The group visited Plzen, Zlin, and the Tatar's. While traveling, my Mom ordered fruit dumplings at a restaurant and thought she would get one or two, but she received a platter of twelve!

When Dad and Mom returned to New York, they bought a used car, my Dad repaired it, and they drove to Minnesota, arriving home with $10.

Our family has always been very active in Czech and Slovak Sokol Minnesota. It was my parents' social network. Dad

In the Sokol Kitchen with Markéta and Míša

On a cold day in March, two of Sokol Minnesota's chefs, Markéta Pálková and Míša Giancarlo Kotek, joined Pat Slaber to video the cooking of Svíčková na Smetaně s Knedlíkem (tenderloin in cream sauce with dumplings). It was a day filled with wonderful smells in the kitchen, lots of laughter, and a great meal to top off the day.

The video was shared in April on Zoom with Sokol Minnesota members. Markéta and Míša were on hand

Highlights of the Sokol Minnesota April Board Meeting

By Denise Stibal

The Meeting was called to order April 15, 2021, at 7:05 p.m. by Vice President Ed Hamernik.

Activities Director Jean Draheim presented information on upcoming events: Craft and Flea Market on May 1 has 15 available spots for vendors. There are six confirmed.

Registration is closed for the Mushroom Hunt on May 23. The registration total is 31, with 19 on a waiting list.

The Members and Volunteers Picnic is scheduled for June 6 at Lakewood Park in White Bear Lake.

The 90th Sokol Camp Booya Picnic is August 15; this is a date change.

Our 32nd Czech and Slovak Festival is September 26.

Jean will be hosting a class about gems and jewels and is looking for craft supplies.

The 23rd Children's Czech and Slovak Cultural Day Camp is June 14-18. The theme this year is Medieval "Castles and Kings." Louise is looking for chess instructors and someone with knowledge of fencing. Glynis Grostephan offered to help with the chess class. Mortars and pestles are also needed.

Rental Committee: Denise Stibal reported for Gary Zweber. There are one to three bookings every month from June 2021 to January 2022. Recently there has been an uptick in inquiries for rentals, with 75% coming from Eventective, the online rental advertisement service. The results have paid for the advertising cost many times over. The short-term goal is to fill the openings each month, and eventually gain momentum whereby the calendar is fully booked in advance each quarter.

Education Director Pat Slaber noted the Bobbin Lace class finishes up April 17. Cooking classes via Zoom are scheduled. The bread dumplings class is April 19 and the svíčková na smetaně s knedlíkem (tenderloin in cream sauce with dumplings) class is April 26. Class registration forms are on the Sokol Minnesota website.

Membership Director Norm Petrik presented one new member, Mark Stafford of Saint Cloud. Financial Secretary Steve Ernest presented the online member registrations: Greg and Karen Gaides of Roseville, Mark Neuzil of Saint Paul, Amy Kuebelbeck of Saint Paul, Pam Brokaw of Hudson, Wisconsin, and Karel and Charlotte Havle of Minneapolis. The new members were accepted. Total current members: 285.

Treasurer Don Haselbauer reported the account totals.

Corresponding Secretary Glynis Grostephan noted $20 were received this month for the General Fund.

Finance Committee Chair Joyce Tesarek reported on grants. Grants submitted: $5,288 to American Sokol Organization (ASO) Foundation (matching grant) to be used for the third floor blinds, ASO -$3,535 for water cooler and bike racks, and $10,000 Wedum Foundation grant for additional radiator work, insulating pipes, and programming.

Mary Cahill reported for the Board of Instructors. The boys' class will end its 10-week session on April 26. Income from that class, $530, has paid for the truck rental for the trip to Omaha to pick up donated gym equipment. The girls' competition group will have weekly classes from May to July.

Obituary for Alton Krikava

Alton Krikava, a Czech and Slovak Sokol Minnesota member, died of natural causes in Albert Lea on April 24, 2021.

Over the course of his 92 years on earth, Alton did a lot. He was a farmer, a tinkerer, a world traveler, and a husband, father, grandfather, and great grandfather.

He attended Albert Lea High School. After graduating, he met and married Marie Pieper who would be his wife for 67 years. He always said that she was the love of his life, and that he was the luckiest man alive to have married her. They lived for a short time in a small house at the edge of Myrtle, Minnesota, before moving to the Krikava farm in Hayward Township near Albert Lea. There they raised a family and ran a successful crop farm.

Alton's great-grandchildren Juna and Leo are in the Taneční Mládež (Dancing Youth) group and have attended the Czech and Slovak Sokol Minnesota Children's Cultural Day Camp.

Please see Alton's full obituary at www.bonnerupfuneralservice.com/obituary/Alton-Krikava

Czech Honorary Consul News

June/July 2021

One of the most frequent (and enjoyable) assignments that I have as Honorary Consul is to hand over new passports to Czech citizens. A person first has to go to the Embassy or a Consulate of the Czech Republic to renew a passport, but one can then request to pick it up at a nearby Honorary Consulate. Here in the Upper Midwest, the old passport, along with signed documents, are mailed back to the Consulate in Chicago, which sends the old passport to the home jurisdiction in the Czech Republic.

Entering the Honorary Consul office and seeing the picture of Václav Havel (1936-2011) on the wall usually produces smiles, as Czechs fondly remember the last President of Czechoslovakia (1989 until the dissolution of Czechoslovakia in 1992) and then the first President of the Czech Republic (1993 to 2003). Sophie Jane Radvan, now living in Minneapolis, is one of many who have asked to have a photo taken with Havel's picture. She wanted to send it to her mother. I gave her a recent Slovo and a small Czech flag, one which had decorated an immigrant Czech grave in New Prague during the 2018 Centennial Celebration of the birth of Czechoslovakia.

Lucas Janíček was the special dinner guest of the Czech Heritage Club in New Prague on May 11. Lucas is this year's Czech exchange student at the New Prague High School. He is from Rokycany, a city with just over 14,000 inhabitants, 11 miles (17 km) east of Plzeň, in western Bohemia. L-R: George Mikiska, Lucas, Vi Chromy, Doris Coghill, and Bruce Coghill. George reported that all enjoyed pork, dumplings, kraut, and vomacka at the Fishtale Grill in New Prague. (Vomacka is the beloved comfort-food soup, comprised at its most basic of cream or half-and-half with potatoes, green beans, and dill.)
