Komentáře prezidentky a členů rady Sokol Minnesota Comments from the President and BOD Member's Notes

Our ties to Sokol Minnesota are each so unique. As I have mentioned previously, I came across Sokol Minnesota by chance as an adult, while dropping my partner off at the C.S.P.S. Hall for an unrelated event. Reading that Jean is a fourth-generation Sokol member is so interesting to me; those are some deep roots! Years ago, I was looking through a notebook of meeting minutes kept in the late 1930s by late Sokol Minnesota sister Georgiana Dolejsi. Those of an age can picture her perfect cursive penmanship capturing the topics of the day. Just consider for a moment the history of our building and all of the individuals that have helped move our organization forward through the years. We really do have a spectacular unit! Cheers to everyone, from our long-term members to those just joining the journey! -- Greetings, Slovo friends!

Cinnamon
Whaley

Jean Verner
Draheim

Hello! I am Jean Verner Draheim, a fourth-generation Sokol Minnesota member. My parents, grandparents, and great-grandparents were all Sokol Minnesota members before me. My grandparents met at Sokol events. My parents and several other family members had their wedding receptions at the C.S.P.S. Hall, as did my husband, Chuck Draheim and I. The Hall has also been where loved ones have had Celebrations of Life, a fitting place for a send-off for life-long Sokols.

There has never been a time when Sokol was not a part of my life. It was a pivotal part of my upbringing. From tots class to junior girls, I spent most Saturdays at the Hall. Gymnastic classes and youth dancing were where I met life-long friends and developed a love of Czech music and folk dancing. Now that I'm retired from substitute teaching, I have been able to join the Sokol Minnesota Singers.

I have been honored to serve on the Sokol Minnesota Board of Directors in several positions: second vice president, education director, a position both my mother and grandfather held, and currently activities director.

Having grown up in a family that values our cultural history has given me a strong desire to learn about and celebrate other cultures. Chuck, long an active volunteer at Sokol Minnesota events, and I have always practiced "ethnic equality" in our marriage, with each of us embracing my Czech background and his Norwegian and German ancestry. We participated in both the Czech and Slovak and Norwegian food booths at the Festival of Nations.

I look forward to continuing to volunteer with Sokol Minnesota, whether by entering events and activities on the Hall calendar, helping with crafts at the Children's Cultural Day Camp, selling tickets at the annual Sokol Camp Booya picnic in Pine City, or helping with koláče baking.

I hope to see everyone at upcoming Sokol Minnesota events!

93rd Annual Sokol Camp Booya Picnic Once Again a Huge Success

By Kari and Scott Muyres, Sokol Camp Booya Picnic Co-chairs

It was a beautiful day at the Sokol Camp in Pine City, Minnesota, for the 93rd annual Booya Picnic on Sunday, August 13. We had to brave the elements for just a bit with rain, but the crowds came early and stayed late to enjoy the vocal talents of Dave Carlson and the spirited dances from the Lipa Slovak Folk Dancers, as well as Booya (which completely sold out) and other culinary delights, plus games for all ages.

A big 'thank you' to the folks providing our entertainment! Many Sokol Minnesota members and friends made the event a huge success through volunteering their time and talents. We are sending all those who contributed a big, warm Sokol děkuji (thank you). Ray Vanyo, Rich Vanyo, and Bobbi Jo Chandler used their talents to make two different Booya recipes for patrons, plus cabbage rolls and halušky.

Congratulations to the Raffle Ticket Winners:

- $200 Judy Metcalf
- $100 Ray/Ricki Vanyo
- $50 Pat Andrle on behalf of her late husband Don
- $50 Peggy Endres

Please mark your calendars for the 2024 Booya Picnic on Sunday, August 11. We hope to see you there!

1. Dave Carlson shared his vocal talents. 2. Grill masters Andy and Bob Marabella preparing brats and jitrnice. 3. Lipa Slovak Folk Dancers. 4. Waylon, Kai, and Samuel saying "booya!" for the camera. 5-7. Part of the booya-stirring crew, three photos (L-R): Jim Clausen, Dylan Muyres, and Mary Kay (Vanyo) Armstrong.

the Creation of Czechoslovakia in 1918
Saturday, October 28, 2023, at 12 Noon

Join us for a fun run/walk of 2 to 5 km. Participants of all ages are welcome. Gather at 12 noon in the parking lot at the C.S.P.S. Hall, 383 W. Michigan Street, Saint Paul.

A brief history of the significance of October 28 will be shared, after which participants can choose their preferred route in or near the West 7th neighborhood. Maps with suggested routes will be provided. This run is planned by the October 28 fun run committee in coordination with the international Sokol Běh Republiky.

Běh means run (it's pronounced "byeh") and Běh Republiky means Run of the Republic. The Běh Republiky commemorates the October 28, 1918, creation of Czechoslovakia and will take place in cities across the Czech Republic and the world, including Washington DC, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Dallas. Event photos will be taken and shared with Sokol Běh organizers in Prague, the Czech Consulate in Chicago, and Sokol Minnesota media/publication staff.

The Czech Sokol March *Toward a New Life

By Tom Aubrecht

The Czech Sokol march, V nový život ("Toward a New Life") was created by Czech composer Josef Suk and the lyrics were written by Petr Křička. Sokol named the march as its official ceremonial march and anthem after Suk's death in 1935. A link to an online performance of this march is included as part of commemorating October 28, 1918, the date of the creation of Czechoslovakia. Thank you to Joan Sedlacek for providing this link and the inspiration to include it in the Slovo. To hear Toward a New Life as performed at the BBC Proms on September 8, 2012 (subtitles in English are provided), go to: <https://tinyurl.com/TowardNewLife>

Josef Suk (1874 – 1935) was a Czech composer and violinist. He studied under and received his greatest inspiration from Antonín Dvořák, whose daughter, Otýlie, he married. Suk composed the initial version of this piece in 1919 (it was actually begun earlier) as a patriotic march, partly in connection with threats from Hungary to the borders of newly formed Czechoslovakia, which was full of discussion about the obligation to defend the country. The piece was written "so that his son would be able to march in tune to his father's music." When the competition for the Falcon March for the 1920 Sokol Slet was announced, Suk submitted an expanded and revised composition, including the opening fanfare, under the pseudonym (some of the judges were rival composers) Josef Emanuel Skřýšovský (after the village of Skřýšov). The march was awarded the first prize. However, it was difficult to establish the use of the march among the pieces Sokols had been assembling and exercising to for years, especially František Kmoč's marches, particularly his March of the Lions. Towards a New Life was not played at the 1920 Sokol Slet. It was first performed in concert by the Czech Philharmonic on December 3, 1931.

Petr Křička (1884 – 1949) was a Moravian high school teacher, librarian, poet, author of children's literature, and translator. His lyrics for Toward a New Life, written in 1930, "combine elements of religious faith and celebration of Czech history with a call to fight for the defense of the nation." Apparently Křička had mixed beliefs about war, based on commentary on his poem Medynia Glogowska (1916).

Czech Honorary Consul News

October
2023

August 21 was the 55th anniversary of the Soviet-orchestrated invasion of Czechoslovakia in 1968, still a painful memory for many. In keeping with the tradition of remembering, honoring, recognizing, commemorating, and celebrating 100/50/25 in 2018, the Czech Heritage Club marks 105/55/30 on October 22, 1- 5 p.m., at the Park Ballroom in New Prague. The admission charge is $10 per person.

It is now 105 years since the formation of Czechoslovakia in 1918, 55 years since the Prague Spring reform movement, and 30 years since the establishment of the two independent nations of the Czech Republic and the Slovak Republic.

The Larry Rysavy Band will provide great Czech music, including polkas and waltzes for dancing. The Czech Heritage Club's booth will sell books, flags, pins, Czech-made merchandise and fresh-baked koláče (known as "kolackys" in Czech Country Minnesota).

The Ballroom will have great food and beverages, including plenty of pivo.

"Voices and Vision," a traveling exhibit from the National Czech and Slovak Museum and Library in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, will be on display. It tells the story of Tomáš Garrigue Masaryk, considered the Founding Father of Czechoslovakia, and American President Woodrow Wilson working together to form Czechoslovakia, which became a nation on October 28, 1918. The Park Ballroom is at 300 Lexington Avenue South, New Prague.

The Minnesota Consular Corps Directory is now available on the Global Minnesota website. It contains a complete listing of Minnesota's consular and diplomatic representatives for 33 countries.

<https://globalminnesota.org/minnesota-consular-corps/>
The Minnesota Consular Corps is comprised of all career and honorary consular officials appointed by their respective governments to serve in Minnesota and who are also duly recognized by the United States Department of State.

The MNCC is an independent organization that unites representatives from countries around the world.

The Cafesjian Art Trust (CAT), located in Shoreview, was established by Gerard Cafesjian (1925-2013), philanthropist, art collector, and publishing executive, to share his collection of Contemporary and Modern art with the public. It opened to the public for the first time in fall 2022. The collection has over 3,500 objects of both fine art and decorative art pieces, including many from the world-renowned Czech studio glass artists, Stanislav Libenský (1921-2002) and Jaroslava Brychtová (1924-2020), plus several of their students, now also famous glass artists. <https://cafesjianarttrust.org>

One of my favorite pieces in the show is Hercules (photo right) (2004) by Czech-born (1949) Petr Hora. Cast from a single color of glass, the blue color changes from brilliant to near-black as the varying thickness allows different amounts of light to pass through; the color also changes as one views the piece from different angles.

Andy Schlauch, CAT Executive Director, stands with Honorary Consul M. L. Kucera beside Contacts III (1983), by Libenský and Brychtová. This cast glass maquette (a scale model of a planned full-size work of art) from 1983, is for a larger piece titled Kontakty (Contacts) which was installed at the Národní třída (National Street) metro station in Prague in 1985. Due to constant defacement and closing of that station over a decade ago, it was taken down and sold. It is now in the permanent collection at CAT. Kontakty weighs several tons.
